

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST: Q2 2019

The following is a list of significant community topics/issues addressed via our broadcast programming during the above noted calendar quarter. The listing is not comprehensive. We are a nonprofit public service media company and primarily air educational and informative programming from a variety of sources and not all programs are listed here. The order of items presented does not denote significance of issues discussed. Our Web postings of these programs are attached.

SHOW	TYPE OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	HOST	PANELISTS	AMONG THE TOPICS
Alaska Edition	Public Affairs Round Table	30-Jun 1-Jul	7:30 PM	30 min.	Michael Carey	Steve MacDonald, Sean Do	Capital Budget Veto, Coastal Zone Manager
Alaska Edition	Public Affairs Round Table	17-Jun	7:30 PM	30 min.	Michael Carey	Steve MacDonald, Kyle Hop	Palin Emails, Pete Kott Trial, Bonnie Craig M
Alaska Edition	Public Affairs Round Table	10-Jun	7:30 PM	30 min.	Michael Carey	Paul Jenkins, Steve MacDor	Palin Emails Released, Housing Discriminati
Alaska Edition	Public Affairs Round Table	3-Jun	7:30 PM	30 min.	Michael Carey	Paul Jenkins, Jill Burke, Der	ACES, Wildfired in Interior, Joe Miller's Sea \
Alaska Edition	Public Affairs Round Table	27-May	7:30 PM	30 min.	Michael Carey	Paul Jenkins, Steve MacDor	Stevens Crash Information, Sealaska Bills, C
Alaska Edition	Public Affairs Round Table	20-May	7:30 PM	30 min.	Michael Carey	Steve MacDonald, Brendan	Denali Gas Line, Parnell's War on Sexual As
Alaska Edition	Public Affairs Round Table	13-May	7:30 PM	30 min.	Jill Burke	Kyle Hopkins, Steve MacDor	State Budget, Governor's Pay Raise, Palin E
Alaska Edition	Public Affairs Round Table	6-May	7:30 PM	30 min.	Michael Carey	Paul Jenkins, Jill Burke, Der	Fairbanks Militia, Air Quality, Sarah Palin
Anchorage Edition	Public Affairs Round Table	29-Apr	7:30 PM	30 min.	Michael Carey	Rebecca Braun, Tim Bradne	State Legislature, ACES, Anchorage Police C
Anchorage Edition	Public Affairs Round Table	15-Apr	7:30 PM	30 min.	Michael Carey	Jill Burke, Paul Jenkins, Lib	State Legislature, Bill Allen, Rick Smith Out c
Anchorage Edition	Public Affairs Round Table	8-Apr	7:30 PM	30 min.	Michael Carey	Gregg Erickson, Paul Jenkin	ACES Revision, Anchorage Elections, Capita

ALASKA EDITION and ANCHORAGE EDITION

April 8 – July 1 2011

Capital Budget Veto Update; Coastal Zone Management Dies; and Alaska Pipeline Woes

Friday, July 1, 2011

This week on Alaska Edition, host Michael Carey is joined in the studio by Steve MacDonald, of KTUU – Channel 2 News, Sean Doogan, of KTVA – Channel 11 News, and Dermot Cole, of the Fairbanks Daily News-Miner. Here are the topics of the week: Gov. Sean Parnell vetoes $400 million from the capital budget; Coastal Zone Management Program dies in a special session of the Legislature; Anchorage Superintendent of Schools Carol Comeau announces her retirement; Alyeska Pipeline Service Company warns that the trans-Alaska pipeline may be good for only another 10 years; Mike Porcaro has a poll that shows if Obama were the Democratic presidential nominee and Palin the Republican standard bearer, Obama would carry Alaska; and finally, USGS Boost Cook Inlet gas estimates.

Palin Email Udate; Kott Trial Set; Bonnnie Craig Murder Solved

Friday, June 17, 2011

This week on Alaska Edition, host Michael Carey sits down with Steve MacDonald, of KTUU, Kyle Hopkins, from the Anchorage Daily News, and Jill Burke, of the Alaska Dispatch. This week they will talk about: what has happened with the Palin emails so far; the Port of Anchorage; Melanie Gould's disappearance and reemergence; Pete Kott's trial date has been set; Parnell takes a rural road trip; trimming the capital budget; and finally, the Bonnie Craig murder is finally solved.

Palin Emails Released; Housing Discrimination; and Reapportionment

Friday, June 10, 2011

This week on Alaska Edition, host Michael Carey sits down with Paul Jenkins, of the Anchorage Daily Planet, of Channel 2 News, and Tony Hall, of Alaska Newspapers. This week, they will discuss: former-Governor Palin's emails are being released; what's happening on Palin's bus tour; housing discrimination for Alaska Natives; revitalizing an endangered language; special session cost the state nearly $1 million; authorities preparing to clear out homeless camps; reapportionment board nearly complete; program to improve rural children's diet with traditional foods; and more rescues of mountaineers.

Governor Parnell Wants Changes to Oil-Taxes; Wildfires Sweep Through the Interior; and Joe Miller's Sea Voyage

Friday, June 3, 2011

This week on Alaska Edition, host Michael Carey is joined in the studio by Paul Jenkins, from the Anchorage Daily Planet, Jill Burke, of Alaska Dispatch, and Dermot Cole, of Fairbanks Daily News-Miner. This week, they will take a closer look at Governor Parnell's call for changes to Alaska's oil-taxes; wildfires striking Interior Alaska, Joe Miller's upcoming sea voyage; an update on the Coastal Zone Management Program; Sarah Palin visits historical sites on her way to New Hampshire; parking enforcement changes in Anchorage; reapportionment in the Legislature; Pete Kott may need to return for a new trial; and what surprises may be revealed with the release of Sarah Palin's emails.

Stevens Crash Information, Sealaska Bills and the Coastal Zone Management Program

Friday, May 27, 2011

This week on Alaska Edition, host Michael Carey is joined in the studio by Paul Jenkins, from the Anchorage Daily Planet, Steve MacDonald, of KTUU Channel 2 News, and Libby Casey, APRN's Washington DC correspondent. This week, they will dive into some of the new details released about the plane crash that killed former-Senator Ted Stevens; five commercial clammers who perished in Cook Inlet; new Sealaska bills that are receiving hearings; an update on the Coastal Zone Management Program; mandatory ID checks in Anchorage; the gas line; Frank Bailey and his book; and finally, Sarah Palin buys a house in Arizona.

Denali Gas Line Abandoned; Parnell Launches War on Sexual Assault

Friday, May 20, 2011

This week on Alaska Edition, host Michael Carey is joined in the studio by Steve MacDonald, Channel 2 News, Brendan Joel Kelly, of the Anchorage Press, and Tony Hall, from Alaska Newspapers, to talk about some of the hot topics from around Alaska, including: BP and ConocoPhillips abandoning their Denali gas line proposal; Geoffrey Dunn's new book; whaling season is underway; the Alaska legislature goes home; update on Walt Monegan; mandatory ID checks for alcohol; former U.S. attorney suspended; pilot bread recipe competition; Parnell launches war on sexual assault; and the Bonnie Craig murder trial is underway.

Budget Gridlock, Pay Raises and Palin's Emails

Friday, May 13, 2011

This week on Alaska Edition, host Jill Burke, of the Alaska Dispatch, sits down with Kyle Hopkins, from the Anchorage Daily News, and Steve MacDonald, of KTUU Channel 2, to talk about some of the hot topics in Alaska this week. Here are some of the topics they are expected to cover: After nearly a month, the gridlock between the House and the Senate over the state's budget appears to be breaking up. The Governor and Lt. Governor are up for a pay raise. Palin's emails are a hot commodity these days with a batch due to be released. The Arctic Nations, including the United States, made history this week in Greenland. Shell files a new exploration plan. The state's rivers are melting, but the ice can clog causing floods, as has happened in Crooked Creek on the Kuskokwim River. The Mat-Su has a new, hi-tech ferry, but this ship that was supposed to be "the next big thing" has nothing to do. And finally, former Alaska lawmaker Tom Anderson is ready to put the past behind him and move on.

Legislative Impasse Continues and Americans React to bin Laden's Death

Friday, May 6, 2011

This week on Alaska Edition, host Michael Carey is joined by Paul Jenkins, from the Anchorage Daily Planet, Jill Burke, from the Alaska Dispatch, and Dermot Cole, from the Fairbanks Daily News-Miner. Here are some of the topics they will discuss: The legislative impasse continues. Sarah Palin is back in the news. Hear the latest on Schaefer Cox and the militia? Air quality is back on the front burner in Fairbanks. BP pays a $25 million fine for spills on the North Slope. The huge Goose Creek prison in the valley won't open on time. The American people have been responding to the death of Osama Bin Laden in Pakistan. The ice went out on the Tanana River and we have winners of the ice pool. And finally, the Alaska Bar Association annual meeting in Fairbanks has produced a characteristic tempest with the appearance of law professor John Yoo.

Alaska Legislature, Oil Tax Revision and the Anchorage Assembly

Friday, April 29, 2011

This week on Anchorage Edition, host Michael Carey is joined by Rebecca Braun, of the Alaska Budget Report, Tim Bradner, from the Alaska Journal of Commerce, and Steve MacDonald, from KTUU-Channel 2 News. They will discuss current status of the Alaska Legislature, what they have done so far and the implications of this session on next year's. Other big topics include the debate on oil taxes and what revisions should be made, if any; the Anchorage police officer who wasn't an American citizen; a trooper who claimed he could smell a pot growing operation well inside a building; and finally, the Anchorage Assembly's budget update.

Alaska Legislature Wrapping Up; Fairbanks Militia Update

Friday, April 15, 2011

Each week, KAKM gathers commentators for a review of the week's news, politics and public affairs in Anchorage and Alaska. Host Michael Carey is joined this week by Jill Burke of the Alaska Dispatch, Paul Jenkins of the Anchorage Daily Planet and Libby Casey, APRN's

Washington correspondent. Topics for this week are expected to include: Final days of the legislature; Bill Allen, Rick Smith getting out of prison; Government shutdown averted; Planned Parenthood; Denali Commission cuts; Potential legislative office in Anchorage; Offshore oil development problems; Joe Miller back; and Fairbanks militia update.

Legislature Taking Up ACES; ANC Election Results; Gleason Named to Federal Bench

Friday, April 8, 2011

Each week, KAKM gathers commentators for a review of the week's news, politics and public affairs in Anchorage and Alaska. Host Michael Carey is joined this week by Gregg Erickson of the Alaska Budget Report, Paul Jenkins of the Anchorage Daily Planet, and Steve MacDonald of Channel 2 News. Topics for this week are expected to include: ACES revision negotiations; Anchorage election results; Capital budget maneuvering; lowering drinking age for military personnel; Sharon Gleason named to federal district court seat; Senate Bill 97; and Coastal Management.